ATT: SERVICE MANAGER/WARRANTY ADMINISTRATORS

WIS System

It has come to our attention that some Warranty Administrators are using the WIS to submit Warranty claims when their Dealership is operating with a Dealer Management System. If your Dealership is currently using a Dealer Management System eg. Reynolds & Reynolds you should continue using that system. The only time that Dealers using a Dealer Management System should use the Warranty Information System to submit claims is when a claim has to be re-submitted. The WIS is designed to act as a replacement for the click and add system not as a replacement for Dealer Management System.

Warranty Hotline

We have been made aware that some Warranty Administrators are having difficulty contacting the Warranty Department via the Warranty Hotline. At present we are investigating alternative ways of making the process of contacting the Warranty Department easier. The Hotline should be used as a last resort not as a first port of call. Where possible please try to keep to one call per-day. If you are having difficulty contacting the Warranty Payment's Hotline then perhaps an e-mail should be sent.

Duplicate Common Operations

Please be aware that some labour operations do include an additional time allowance. Some examples are A/C Compressor replacements, engine camshaft seals, and brake master cylinder replacements. When claiming labour times for these repairs you are not entitled to the extra time for re-gassing the A/C, bleeding the brakes and removing of the inlet manifold.

TNT Consignment Notes

As of this payment all NSW Dealers will receive their TNT Consignment Notes directly from TNT. The contact person at TNT is Mr Mike Mussett he can be contacted on e-mail michael_mussett@tnt.com.au or at the Sydney Parts Distribution Centre. All other states will continue to receive their TNT consignment notes from MMAL Warranty Administration until further notice.
