Bosch parts to be held until further notice.

In a previous Warranty Information Bulletin dated 19/4/2005, Mitsubishi Motors Aust Ltd requested that Dealers hold on to all failed parts for part numbers MR908125, MR901348, MR901085 and MR908124 until further notice regardless of the instructions on the parts disposition list.

Mitsubishi Motors Aust Ltd has been instructed by Bosch that they no longer require these parts to be held for analysis. Effective immediately, dealers can disregard the previous correspondence of 19/4/2005 and can dispose of any of the above parts that exceed the disposition list destruction dates.

It is still a requirement of Dealers to hold on to these failed parts as per the parts disposition list.
