Dealer Handling on Recall and Service Campaign Claims

This Warranty Bulletin is to advise dealers how to claim the dealer part handling charge on parts involved in a recall or service campaign.

At the date of this bulletin, the only recall or service campaign that is affected by this new procedure is recall number 010040. In future, this procedure will apply to recalls and service campaigns and may be applied retrospectively to existing recall and service campaigns. MMAL will advise as required.

When claiming for a recall or service campaign, dealers must strictly adhere to the instructions provided in the campaign notification. This will ensure prompt payment to dealers and allow MMAL to recover necessary costs.

Dealers must ensure that the cause part is the nominated cause part and not the part RCHANDLING. The parts list should not contain any other lines other than the lines shown in the campaign notification.

Below is an example from recall 010040.

	Claim Type	Position Code	A Code	B Code	C Code	Reference Code
