Recall and Service Campaign Claims

MMAL Warranty is currently experiencing an issue with regards to recall and service campaign claims.

Claims can be submitted for outstanding campaigns, but the processing of these claims is being halted. As a result, recall and service campaign claims are remaining in a status of 001 (New Claim) or 0002 (In Process).

There is a defect in place to rectify the problem and once the problem is resolved, MMAL Warranty will communicate the fix to the Dealer network.

Whilst this issue is being investigated, MMAL Warranty encourage all Dealers to continue to submit any recall or service campaign claims and not wait until the issue has been resolved.
