Lubricants and Fluids

MMAL Service department have issued a General Letter advising the current lubricant and fluid allowances and the sundry part number applicable for each lubricant and fluid that must be used for the preparation of a warranty claim. The current General Letter at the time of this bulletin is GL-12-023.

When Dealers are preparing their warranty claims for submission, the amount published for each sundry part number must be used. MMAL Warranty will adjudicate claims based on the current general letter for lubricants and fluids and therefore these amounts must not be exceeded when claimed. In addition, Dealers must also use the published sundry part number for the applicable lubricant or fluid used and not the actual lubricant or fluid part number.

Failure in following these instructions will delay claim approval and may result in claims being disapproved.
