Claim Coding Video

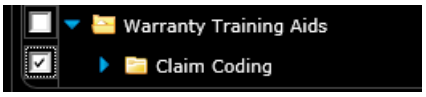

The Claim Coding Video used in recent Warranty Seminars can be downloaded from the Dealer Portal using the following instructions:

1. Navigate to:
   Knowledge>Service(Data)>Warranty>Warranty Downloads.

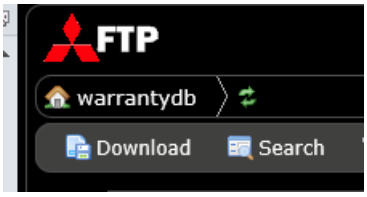

2. This will open a new tab similar to the screen shot below

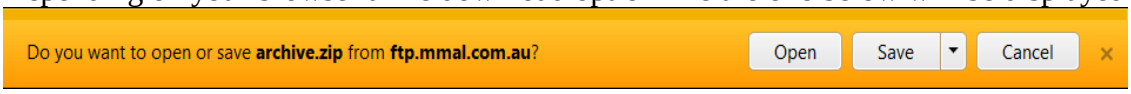

3. Click on the blue arrow next to the folder named "Warranty Training Aids" and place a tick in the box next to the folder "Claim Coding"

4. Click on the "Download" button.

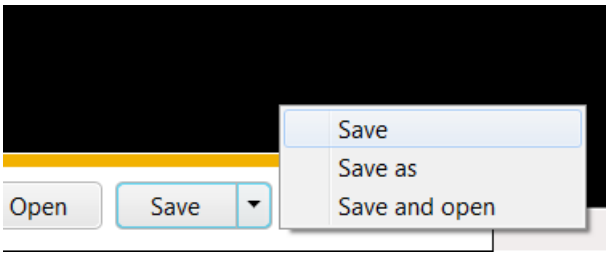

5. Depending on your browser a file download option like the one below will be displayed

At this point you can choose to run the video by using the "Open", or to "Save" the video to a place of your choice by using “Save As” function

As mentioned in the Warranty Seminars, this video was produced for the launch of the last warranty system (DEACON, 1993), however the information it contains is still relevant. While the tools (eg paper claims, and hard copy Flat Rate Manual) have been replaced with on-line processes and manuals, the process of determining a Labour Operation Code or quality codes is essentially the same.
