- In the "Causal Part" field enter the part number (or part thereof) of the component that is believed to be the cause of the failure.

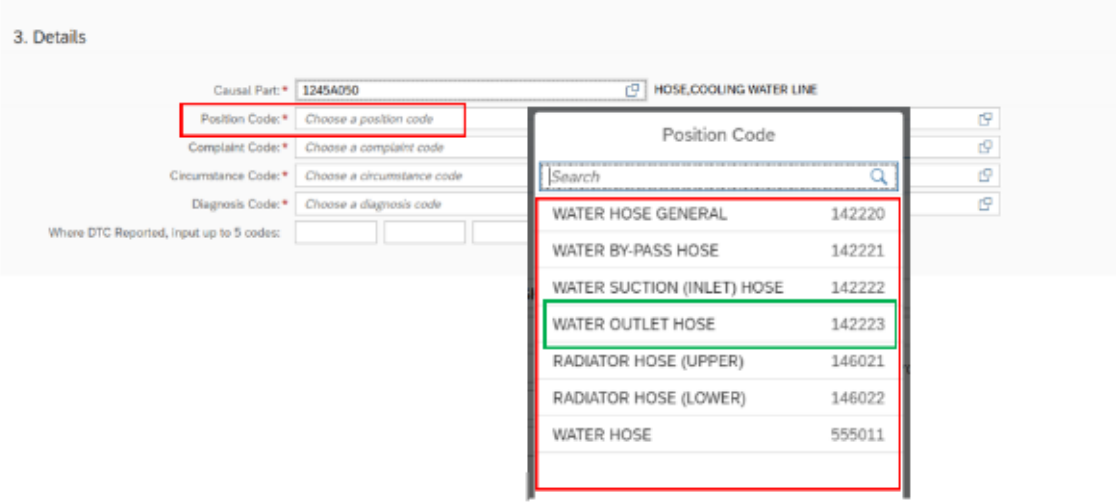

- Select 🔍 to search for part number
- Select the correct part number from the returned values

The Causal Part field will now be populated with the selected part number

- Select the "Position Code" field and the available Position Codes, relevant to the Cause Part, will be displayed.

- Select a Position Code from the list that best describes the component that failed; that is, the specific part that caused the vehicle to present for repair.

  This may be the position code of a sub-component where an assembly is used to complete a repair.

  NOTE: "General" Position Codes, i.e. codes ending in "00" or containing the word "General" in the description, are rarely an appropriate selection.

- If none of the displayed Position Codes are applicable you may continue to search the Position Code catalogue MANUALLY.

A "manual" search should be done in conjunction with the Operation Code Manual to ensure correct position code selection.

A "manual" search will be required where a Miscellaneous Part, such as an Exchange Audio unit (e.g. part number XAUDIO) is fitted, as NO position codes will initially be offered.

- After identifying the appropriate component, enter the position code (or part thereof) or text description (or part thereof) of the component.
- Select to search for position codes
- Select the correct position code for the part that failed

Use of REPAIRED box

The "Repaired" box, adjacent to the Causal Part radio button, should be checked when the part nominated as the Causal Part was NOT replaced, e.g.

* a sub-component within an assembly caused the failure but a complete assembly was used to rectify the vehicle
* where a part is removed, repaired and the original part is refitted
* The part cost will be set to $0 as no part cost was incurred for this component

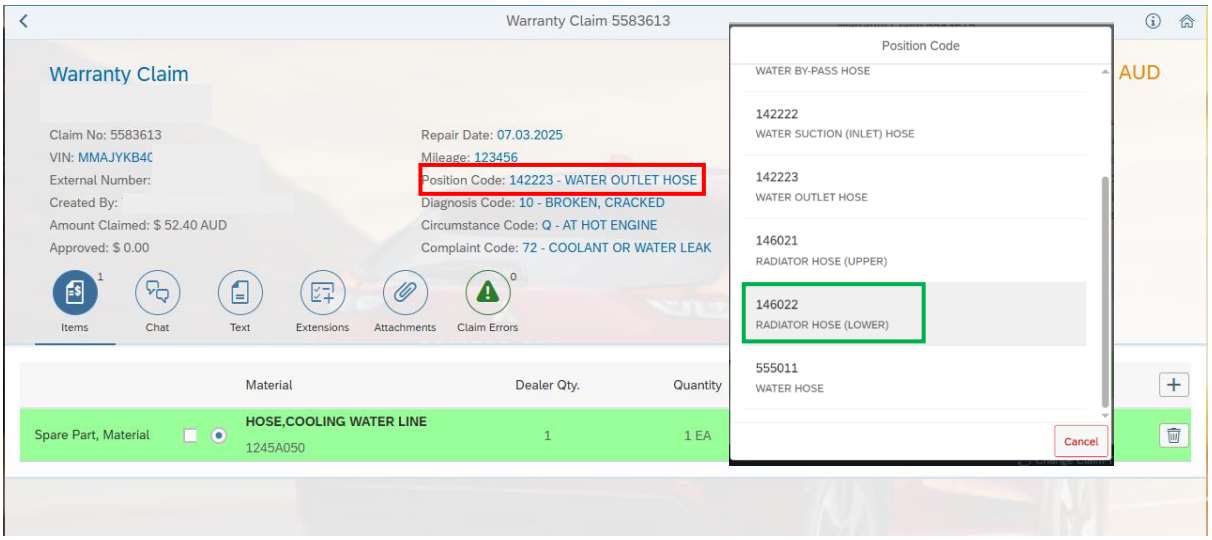

- Enter all remaining parts and labour records as required to complete the claim

Changing Position Code and/or Causal Part

The position code and/or the Causal Part can still be changed at this time

Change Position Code

- Select the Position Code field and the list of position codes applicable to the Causal part will be displayed.
- Select the required Position Code from the list. This will replace the current Position Code
